DISCOVER

- Research Girl Scout founder, Juliette Gordon Low, and have a discussion about her life during a meal.
- Find out how your family can help your Girl Scout troop.
- Visit a GSLPG Service Center. Explore the retail store to see what badges you may want to earn.

CONNECT

- Make s'mores together over a campfire, in an oven, or even in a microwave—a sweet Girl Scout tradition. Did you know Girl Scouts is credited with creating the s'mores recipe?
- Interview your family members to find out if they were Girl Scouts. Learn what was different and same then versus now.
- Attend a family-friendly Girl Scout event together.
- Show your troop leader appreciation, by writing or drawing a thank you note.

TAKE ACTION

- Show your Girl Scout spirit! Rock your favorite Girl Scout gear and have your family members wear Girl Scout green.
- Spend time outdoors together. Go on a hike, take a nature walk, go camping, or pursue another outdoor adventure as a family.
- Identify an issue in the community that is important to your family and do a community service project together.
- Earn your Cookie Entrepreneur Family Pin during cookie season!

Once you've completed at least six of the activities, submit your experience to receive a complimentary patch while supplies last. Don't forget to post a photo with the hashtag #GSLPG.
