

Why Girl Scouts?

Program Intern

Do you believe in the empowerment of girls? Girl Scouts of the USA believes in building girls of courage, confidence and character who make the world a better place and are consistently trying to be innovative and nimble as we try to match pace with 21st century girls. By interning here, you find your own inner G.I.R.L. (Go-Getter, Innovator, Risk-taker, Leader) and become interconnected to the international Girl Scout family.

Girl Scouts of Louisiana – Pines to the Gulf is a wonderful place to explore your career interests. Are you interested in non-profit work, event management, or youth development & curriculum? We are looking for a motivated self-starter to assist with the development and implementation of projects and events in any of our five regions.

Preferred Majors: Human Development, Education, Hospitality Management, Environmental/Outdoor studies, or similar.

Potential Projects: Event development, partner relationship management

Internship Term: Fall, Spring, Summer, or Annual

What We Offer:

Although our internship is unpaid, you will get a quality experience at Girl Scouts.

- o Flexible scheduling – ability to work in office and remotely
- o Real, hands on projects that fit your professional experience needs and interests
- o Regular checks ins and feedback
- o Intern supervisor access and availability
- o Industry related and soft skill development
- o Networking opportunities

Interested? E-mail a letter of interest with your name, contact information, major/minor, and elevator pitch: Why would you like to intern at Girl Scouts?
