Fall Product Program Family Guide

Girls can sell nuts, candy, magazines and more to their friends and family from September 29-November 6.

The Fall Product Program is a great opportunity for girls to learn entrepreneurship skills while raising money early in the year to fund activities and adventures. 15% of every dollar earned is maintained by the troop, plus girls earn themed rewards. Not in a troop, or your troop is not participating, there are still ways to participate and earn funds.

How to Participate

Girls may participate by following the instructions on the front side of this flyer on, or after, September 29, and using the following criteria.

- Online - Nut/candy orders can be shipped or girl delivered. Magazines & more are shipped only, directly to the customer. ALL girls can participate in online sales, even if their troop chooses not to participate. Caregivers will be contacted to pick up product for girl delivery.
- Order Card – ONLY IRGs and girls in participating troops can take orders using their order card and collect payments up front to be turned into their troop leader; these orders will be received by your troop leader/IRG caregiver for girl delivery.

NOTE: Individually Registered Girls (IRG) must turn in 100% of the money collected. In lieu of troop proceeds, they may submit a request to council for monetary support for their Girl Scout related activities.

Care to Share

For each $8 donation, one bag of candy is delivered to local military personnel. Girls earn a patch for collecting 5+ Care to Share orders.
